

PRONOUNS-MCQs

See the underlined pronoun in the given sentence and tick on the sentence which has the correct plural of the underlined pronoun.

See the underlined pronoun in the given sentence. Then tick on the sentence which has the correct plural of the underlined pronoun:

1. I bought some French fries.

- They bought some French fries.
- We bought some French fries.
- You bought some French fries.

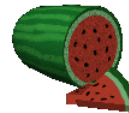

2. You will like the cake I bake.

- You will all like the cake I bake.
- They will all like the cake I bake.
- We will all like the cake I bake.

3. She loves to eat melons in summer.

- They love to eat melons in summer.
- We love to eat melons in summer.
- You love to eat melons in summer.

4. I want some more toast.

- They want some more toast.
- You want some more toast.
- We want some more toast.

5. He received many gifts at Christmas.

- They received many gifts at Christmas.
- We received many gifts at Christmas.
- You received many gifts at Christmas.

6. It roars loudly.

- They roar loudly.
- You roar loudly.
- We roar loudly.

7. I scored one goal in the match.

- They scored one goal in the match.
- We scored one goal in the match.
- You scored one goal in the match.

8. “Will you have some fries?” he said.

- “Will we have some fries?” he said.
- “Will you all have some fries?” he said.
- “Will they have some fries?” he said.

9. “I have won,” she exclaimed.

- “We have won,” they exclaimed.
- “I have won,” they exclaimed.
- “We have won,” she exclaimed.

10. It has been planted well by you.

- They have been planted well by they.
- It has been planted well by you.
- They have been planted well by you.

